

I do not want banks to call my house, whether I've done business with them before or not. I don't do business with them now for a reason. If I want to speak with them, I will call them. I DO NOT want to talk to them while I'm eating with my family, watching television, giving my child a bath, or at any other time.

Thank you for considering my opinion.